

CONSTITUTION

BEAR AI 2026

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this student organization shall be “Bear AI,” also known as “BearAI,” hereinafter referred to as BearAI.

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE AND GOALS

Section 1. Purpose

The purpose of BearAI shall be to educate the Baylor community about artificial intelligence and provide a welcoming environment for learning, discussion, and participation.

Section 2. Goals

The goals of BearAI shall be: (1) to provide a forum for discussion of artificial intelligence; (2) to equip students with a theoretical understanding of artificial intelligence; (3) to develop technical understanding and practical skills in artificial intelligence; (4) to promote the ethical use of artificial intelligence; and (5) to increase diversity and participation within the artificial intelligence community at Baylor University.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility

Any registered Baylor University student who meets the University’s eligibility requirements, as stated in the current Student Handbook, may become a member. No prior technical experience shall be required.

Section 2. Dues

Dues shall not be required for membership or active status. The Executive Board may propose voluntary annual dues, subject to approval by a majority of votes cast by active members at a meeting with quorum. Any approved amount shall apply only through the end of that spring semester. Nonpayment shall not limit membership, voting rights, or eligibility for office.

Section 3. Removal Procedures

A member may be removed for conduct inconsistent with the mission and values of BearAI or Baylor University. Removal shall require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the active members present and eligible to vote at a meeting with quorum. The member shall receive written notice of the grounds at least seven calendar days before the vote and shall have an opportunity to respond. The member under review shall not vote on their own removal.

Section 4. Active Membership

An active member shall be an eligible student who registers with the organization for the current semester and participates in at least one BearAI meeting or activity during that semester. At the first meeting of each semester, eligible students who register and attend shall qualify as active members. Active members in good standing may vote, nominate candidates, and seek office, subject to University eligibility requirements. The Secretary shall maintain the active membership roster and record participation. Active status shall continue through the semester unless the member withdraws, becomes ineligible, or is removed under this Constitution.

ARTICLE IV: OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers and Duties

The officers of BearAI shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Social Media & Outreach Chair. All officers shall be active members and meet Baylor University's requirements for holding office.

1. President

The President shall preside over regular and Executive Board meetings, coordinate organizational activities, and communicate with the officers and advisors on organizational matters.

2. Vice President

The Vice President shall assist the President, coordinate assigned activities, and preside over meetings in the President's absence.

3. Secretary

The Secretary shall record minutes of business meetings, maintain attendance and membership records, distribute official notices and member communications, and preserve organizational records.

4. Treasurer

The Treasurer shall receive voluntary dues and other funds, maintain financial records, oversee monetary transactions and fundraising, and prepare and maintain an annual budget. All payments shall comply with Article VII.

5. Social Media & Outreach Chair

The Social Media & Outreach Chair shall manage BearAI's social media presence, promote meetings and events, coordinate recruitment and outreach, and work with the Secretary to ensure consistent communications.

Section 2. Election Process

Officer elections shall be held at a regular meeting during the spring semester on a date selected by the Executive Board and announced at least two weeks in advance. Active members in good standing may nominate candidates, including themselves, from the floor. A quorum shall be present. Election shall require a majority of votes cast for each office; abstentions shall not count as votes cast. If no candidate receives a majority, a runoff shall be held between the two candidates receiving the most votes. Any tie affecting advancement or election shall be resolved by an additional ballot among the tied candidates. Newly elected officers shall assume responsibility at the following meeting and serve until their successors take office, unless they resign, become ineligible, or are removed.

Section 3. Removal of an Officer

An officer may be removed for failure to maintain eligibility, failure to perform the duties of office, or conduct inconsistent with the mission and values of BearAI or Baylor University. Removal shall require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the active members present and eligible to vote at a meeting with quorum. The officer shall receive written notice of the grounds at least seven calendar days before the vote and shall have an opportunity to respond. The officer shall not vote on their own removal. A resulting vacancy shall be filled under Section 4.

Section 4. Vacancies and Interim Officers

When the presidency becomes vacant, the Vice President shall serve as interim President. For other vacancies, the remaining Executive Board may appoint an eligible active member on an interim basis after consulting an advisor. If no officers remain, an advisor may designate an eligible active member as interim President solely to coordinate essential operations and a special election. A special election shall be held within 30 calendar days while classes are in session, or within the first 30 calendar days of the next semester if necessary. The election shall follow the notice, nomination, quorum, and voting requirements in Section 2. Elected replacements shall take office immediately and complete the remainder of the term. Interim service shall end when an elected successor takes office.

ARTICLE V: EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section 1. Executive Board

There shall be an Executive Board responsible for governing BearAI in accordance with this Constitution.

Section 2. Composition

The Executive Board shall consist of the five officers listed in Article IV, including duly appointed interim officers.

Section 3. Purpose

The Executive Board shall propose, approve, and implement actions and activities necessary for the operation of BearAI that are consistent with this Constitution and any bylaws. It shall not exercise powers reserved to the membership. A majority of currently filled officer positions, with a minimum of two officers, shall constitute Board quorum. Board decisions shall require a majority of votes cast; a tie shall not approve a proposal.

ARTICLE VI: MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular Meetings

Regular meetings shall be held at a frequency, time, and location determined by the Executive Board and communicated to members in advance. Meetings may be held in person or through a live online platform that allows members to participate and vote. Notice of meetings involving official business shall be provided at least seven calendar days in advance, except where this Constitution requires longer notice.

Section 2. Quorum

A quorum for membership business shall consist of more than half of the active membership recorded by the Secretary: one-half of the total, rounded down to the nearest whole number, plus one. Quorum shall be present when official business is conducted and votes are taken. Members participating live online shall count as present. Unless this Constitution specifies otherwise, a motion shall pass by a majority of votes cast by active members present and eligible to vote; abstentions shall not count as votes cast. Each active member shall have one vote.

ARTICLE VII: FINANCES

Section 1. Dues

Any voluntary dues shall be proposed, approved, and collected in accordance with Article III, Section 2. The Treasurer shall record all receipts and expenditures and make a financial report available to the membership upon request.

Section 2. Banking

All money belonging to BearAI shall be deposited and disbursed through a bank account established for the organization. All funds shall be deposited within 48 hours after collection. The organization's advisor or advisors shall approve and sign each expenditure before payment.

ARTICLE VIII: JUDICIAL REVIEW BOARD

Section 1. Enforcement

The Judicial Review Board shall review alleged violations of this Constitution and make findings and recommendations to the membership. It shall provide the member or officer under review with written notice of the concerns and an opportunity to respond before issuing a recommendation. Final removal decisions shall remain with the membership under Articles III and IV. An advisor shall provide procedural guidance without voting.

Section 2. Composition

The Judicial Review Board shall be convened only when needed and shall consist of three impartial active members selected by majority vote at a membership meeting with quorum. At least one shall be a member who does not hold office. A person directly involved in the matter shall not serve. The three members shall select a chair and decide findings and recommendations by majority vote. If three impartial active members are unavailable, the advisor shall consult the Department of Student Activities for guidance before the review proceeds.

ARTICLE IX: ADVISORS

BearAI shall have at least one official advisor. All advisors shall be full-time faculty or staff members of Baylor University. Advisors shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (1) To provide guidance on Baylor University policies and procedures and support the organization's adherence to those rules;
- (2) To review and approve requests for organizational events, activities, publicity, and T-shirts;
- (3) To advise on goal setting, problem solving, policy making, and upholding the organization's guidelines and purposes; and
- (4) To attend all off-campus and overnight activities as the University representative, provide guidance and support, and assume leadership in an emergency.

ARTICLE X: AMENDMENTS AND REVISIONS

This Constitution may be amended by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the entire active membership, subject to approval through the Department of Student Activities.
